Plea

(In open court; case called)

THE DEPUTY CLERK: This is 09 CR 948, as well as 09 CR 1188, United States v. Brandon Lisi.

Is the government present and ready to proceed?

MR. LOCKARD: Yes. Good afternoon, your Honor. Michael Lockard for the government. With me at counsel table is Special Agent Olga Novosad of the FBI.

THE DEPUTY CLERK: Is defense present and ready to proceed?

MR. ZELIN: Yes. Good afternoon, your Honor. My name is Randy Zelin from Moritt Hock & Hamroff. I represent the defendant, Brandon Lisi, who is to my left and your Honor's right.

THE DEFENDANT: Good afternoon, your Honor.

THE COURT: Judging from the document before me, Mr. Lisi is prepared to enter a plea of guilty to Count One of the indictment before me and Count One of the indictment assigned to Judge Swain, is that correct?

MR. ZELIN: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, I would ask you to stand for a minute, please.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Would you raise your right hand?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

(Defendant sworn)

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 THE COURT: Tell me your full name, please.

2 THE DEFENDANT: Brandon Kiell Lisi.

3 THE COURT: What is your middle name?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Kiell.

5 THE COURT: How old are you, sir?

6 THE DEFENDANT: 39, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Why don't you sit down?

8 MR. ZELIN: Thank you, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, what was the last grade in 10 school that you completed?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Juris doctorate, your Honor, law
12 school.

13 THE COURT: Are you now -- I should know the answer to 14 this -- or have you recently been under the care of a doctor or 15 mental health professional?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Under the care of several doctors,
17 your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Are you taking any medication as a result
19 of that medical care?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Could you tell me what drugs you have been 22 prescribed?

23 THE DEFENDANT: There's a lot, your Honor. Azor is 24 the most recent for blood pressure. Ventolin. Simbicort.
25 Hydromorphone. Percocet. Rubifluxin (ph). Singulair. I

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 believe that's it, your Honor. Prednisone, your Honor. I
2 apologize for interrupting. Prednisone.

3 THE COURT: Have you taken any of those drugs within 4 the last 24 hours?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, but 18 hours ago so
6 that I would be lucid for this.

7 THE COURT: So at this point, are any of those drugs
8 affecting your ability to understand and participate in this 9 plea here today?

10 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Have you ever been hospitalized or treated
12 for alcoholism or narcotics addiction?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Have you had sufficient time to discuss
15 your plea with your counsel, Mr. Zelin?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Have you been satisfied with the advice
18 and counsel that he's given to you?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Are you ready to enter a plea today to the 21 first counts of the two indictments?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: What is your plea? Guilty or not guilty.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, in order to determine whether

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 your plea is voluntary and made with a full understanding of
2 the charges against you and the consequences of your plea, I'm
3 going to make certain statements to you, and I'm going to ask
4 you certain questions. I want you to understand that I need
5 not accept your plea unless I am satisfied that you are in fact
6 guilty and that you fully understand your rights.

7 So, the charge against you in both Counts One of the 8 two indictments is the same except that Count One of the 9 indictment before me covers the period 2005 to 2007, and the 10 period in the second indictment assigned to Judge Swain covers
11 the period 2006 to March 2009.

12 In both indictments, Count One charge you with 13 participating in a conspiracy to commit bank fraud and wire
14 fraud in connection with fraudulent applications for 15 residential mortgage loans. Both of these crimes carry a
16 maximum possible sentence of 30 years in prison, a maximum fine
17 of $1 million or twice the gross pecuniary gain derived from 18 the offense or twice the gross pecuniary loss to a person other
19 than yourself as a result of the offense, and a $100 special
20 assessment and supervised release of five years. In addition,
21 the Court is required to order restitution.

22 Do you understand that those are the charges in the 23 two counts to which you're pleading and the maximum penalties
24 applicable to those charges?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 THE COURT: Do you understand that it is part of your
2 plea to waive any objection you might have to these charges
3 based on venue?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you understand that it is part of your
6 plea to admit the forfeiture allegations in the two indictments
7 and to agree to forfeit the sum of $7 million to the United 8 States?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Do you understand that in exchange for 11 your plea of guilty, that the U.S. Attorney's Office has agreed
12 not to prosecute you further for the Counts One of the 13 respective indictments and will move at sentencing to dismiss
14 any open counts against you?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand that you have the right
17 to plead not guilty and a right to a trial on the charges
18 against you, and, in fact, the right to a jury trial?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: In fact, a trial has been scheduled, at 21 least in the case before me, for June, is that not correct?

22 THE DEFENDANT: That's correct, your Honor, that's my 23 understanding.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Lockard, I would ask you please to 25 recite the elements of the crimes charged.

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 MR. LOCKARD: Yes, your Honor. Count One of each
2 indictment charges a conspiracy to commit bank fraud and wire
3 fraud in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section
4 1349. The elements of that offense are:

5 First, an agreement between two or more people to 6 accomplish an object that is illegal under United States law.

7 Second, that the defendant willfully and knowingly
8 joins into that agreement.

9 And, third, that one of the co-conspirators undertakes
10 at least one overt act in furtherance of the unlawful object.

11 The elements of the first object, wire fraud, in 12 violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343 are:

13 First, that the defendant devised a scheme or artifice
14 to defraud or to obtain money or property.

15 Second, the defendant did so by means of false and 16 fraudulent pretenses.

17 Third, that the defendant made or caused to be made an 18 interstate wire.

19 And, fourth, that the wire was for the purpose of 20 executing the scheme or artifice to defraud.

21 The second object of the conspiracy on both counts is 22 bank fraud in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
23 Section 1344. The elements of that object are:

24 First, that the defendant devised a scheme or artifice
25 to defraud a financial institution or to obtain money or

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 property owned by or under the control of a financial
2 institution.

3 Second, that the defendant did so by means of false
4 and fraudulent pretenses.

5 And, third, that at the time the financial institution
6 was a financial institution as defined by statute and that its
7 deposits were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance
8 Corporation.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, do you understand that if you
10 pled not guilty and went to trial, the burden would be on the 11 government to prove each and every element of the crimes
12 charged beyond a reasonable doubt in order to convict you?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Do you understand that at a trial, you
15 would have the right to be represented by an attorney at all
16 stages of the proceedings, and, if necessary, an attorney would 17 be appointed for you?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand that at a trial, you
20 would have the right to confront, and cross-examine witnesses
21 against you and the right not to be compelled to incriminate
22 yourself?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Do you understand that at a trial, you
25 would be presumed innocent until such time, if ever, the

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 government established your guilt by competent evidence to the 2 satisfaction of the trier of fact beyond a reasonable doubt?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that at a trial, you
5 would have the right to testify and would also be entitled to 6 compulsory process, in other words, the right to call other
7 witnesses on your behalf?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you understand that if your plea is 10 accepted, that there will be no further trial of any kind, so
11 that by pleading guilty, you are waiving your right to a trial?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you are 14 sentenced to a period of supervised release, and if you violate
15 the terms of your supervised release, that an additional period
16 of jail time may be imposed without credit for the time that 17 you had previously spent on supervised release?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand that in connection with 20 your plea of guilty, that the Court may ask you certain
21 questions about the offense to which you have pled, and if you
22 answer those questions under oath and on the record and in the 23 presence of your lawyer, that your answers, if false, may later
24 be used against you in a prosecution for perjury or false
25 statement?

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, do I assume correctly that you
3 are a citizen of the United States?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, did you sign a plea agreement
6 earlier today?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Before you signed the plea agreement, did
9 you read it?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Before you signed it, did you discuss it
12 with Mr. Zelin?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Separate and apart from the plea
15 agreement, have any threats or promises been made to you to 16 make you plead guilty?

17 MR. ZELIN: Your Honor, there is one additional 18 agreement between the government and my client that I
19 understand that the government will be putting on the record.

20 MR. LOCKARD: Judge, for the purposes of clarifying
21 the record, your Honor, the plea agreement contains all of the 22 agreements with respect to the defendant's plea to Count One of 23 the indictment before your Honor and to Count One in the 24 indictment before Judge Swain. During the course of plea
25 discussions, there was the issue of whether the defendant would

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 also plead guilty to conduct post arrest -- some of which is
2 addressed in our December letter to the Court about the
3 defendant's bail conditions -- and the defendant is not
4 pleading guilty to anything relating to that conduct at this
5 time. The government has made a commitment to Mr. Zelin that 6 we will meet with him about that topic before any final
7 charging decisions are made. But that conduct is not part of 8 this plea agreement, and this plea agreement covers every 9 agreement with the defendant and his counsel with respect to 10 his plea to these two counts.

11 THE COURT: That having been said, have any other
12 promises been made to you to make you plead guilty?

13 MR. ZELIN: Your Honor, there have been no other
14 promises. The only other thing that I would put on the record,
15 and, of course, it's subject to your Honor's final decision,
16 it's my understanding that the government will not be making a
17 motion for a change of my client's custody status if, as and 18 when your Honor accepts my client's pleas.

19 MR. LOCKARD: We don't intend to make such a motion,
20 your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Just to be clear, have any threats been 22 made to you, Mr. Lisi, to induce you to plead guilty?

23 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Have any understandings or promises been 25 made to you concerning the sentence that you will receive?

D4jQlisp

Plea

1 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Is your plea voluntary; in other words, of 3 your own free will?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: I am going to review a few portions of the 6 plea agreement with you to make sure that you understand them.
7 First, do you understand that the plea agreement contains a
8 stipulated guidelines range of from 78 to 97 months with a fine
9 range of $12,500 to $1 million?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Do you understand that the parties have 12 agreed that neither an upward nor a downward departure from the 13 stipulated guidelines range is warranted, but that either party
14 may seek a sentence outside of the stipulated guidelines range?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand that the government is 17 relieved or is free to seek an adjusted guidelines range if it
18 learns additional facts about your criminal history, or if you
19 engage in conduct which constitutes an obstruction of justice,
20 or if you commit another crime after signing this agreement, or 21 if you fail to clearly demonstrate acceptance of 22 responsibility, among other things?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Do you understand that this plea agreement
25 binds neither the probation office nor the Court as far as the

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 guideline stipulation is concerned, and that the sentence to be
2 imposed upon you is determined solely by the Court?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you receive a
5 sentence within or below your stipulated guidelines range, that 6 you have waived any right to appeal your sentence?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty because you are,
9 in fact, guilty?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Do you understand that this plea agreement
12 doesn't bind any other prosecuting authority other than United 13 States Attorney's office for the Southern District of New York?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Do you understand that this plea agreement
16 may not be changed except in a writing signed by all parties,
17 and that it takes the place of any prior understanding or 18 promise except for a written proffer agreement that might have 19 been entered into?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, did you commit the offenses that 22 were charged in Count One of the indictment before me and Count
23 One of the indictment before Judge Swain?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Would you tell me in your own words what

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 you did?

2 MR. ZELIN: Your Honor, with the Court's approval, my
3 client will be reading an allocution. We'll start with Count
4 One of the indictment before your Honor, and then we'll be 5 going to Count One of the indictment before Judge Swain, if 6 that's acceptable.

7 THE COURT: That's fine.

8 MR. ZELIN: Thank you. Would you like my client to 9 stand or remain seated?

10 THE COURT: He can sit.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, during the time period in 12 or about 2005 to 2007, in the Southern District of New York and 13 elsewhere, I participated in a scheme to defraud lenders in 14 connection with residential mortgage loans. This scheme was 15 furthered through the use of wires for telephone and faxes
16 through the United States Postal Service, through the United 17 States Banking system including through bank wire transfers and 18 federally insured lenders.

19 On or about October 19, 2006, through the use of 20 telephone lines, I had a telephone conversation with a
21 co-defendant, Jeffrey LaRochelle, where we discussed providing 22 a straw buyer to enter into a contract to purchase real estate
23 property and apply for a mortgage using a straw buyer's good
24 credit.

25 MR. ZELIN: May we have one moment please, your

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 Honor.?

2 (Pause)

3 MR. ZELIN: That would be with regard to Count One of 4 the indictment before your Honor.

5 THE COURT: If we could just stop there.

6 Mr. Lockard, is there anything else that you would
7 like me to ask Mr. Lisi?

8 MR. LOCKARD: I think that's sufficient with respect
9 to Count One of 09 CR 948.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, with respect to the 11 indictment I'm charged with in front of Judge Swain, during the 12 time period in or about 2006 through 2009, in the Southern 13 District of New York and elsewhere, I did participate in a 14 scheme with others to defraud lenders in connection with 15 residential mortgage loans. This scheme was furthered through 16 the use of wires for telephone and faxes through the United
17 States Postal Service, through the United States Banking system
18 including through bank wire transfers and federally insured
19 lenders. Properties that were subject to this scheme include
20 135 Woodhill Lane, Manhasset, New York; 1028 Knabbe Court, 21 Uniondale, New York; and 3516 Neptune Avenue in Brooklyn; and 22 708 Allwyn Street in Baldwin, New York.

23 During this time I participated in a scheme to defraud
24 lenders who funded loans collateralized by these properties
25 where straw buyers such as Eric, Craig and Laura Kesten, the

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 children-in-law of Louis Kesten, purchased these properties,
2 and submitted false and fraudulent documents to the lenders, as 3 well as where Kesten or an entity controlled by him sold the 4 property to Melissa Lanzilotta Smith, who was a straw buyer and 5 also submitted false and fraudulent loan documents to the 6 lender.

7 For example, with regard to many of the properties
8 where the Lesten children were purchasers and where 9 Lanzilotta-Smith purchased from Lesten, the lenders were 10 deceived into believing that Kesten's children and 11 Lanzilotta-Smith would be occupying the premises as their 12 primary residence, when they were in fact not going to be 13 living in the mortgaged premises.

14 In many cases, the purchase prices were inflated to 15 induce the lender to lend a greater amount than the lender
16 otherwise would have. In addition, the lender was deceived
17 because the lender was not told that the loan proceeds were not
18 going to be used to fund the purchase of the property or pay
19 off an existing loan where the existing mortgage was to be 20 refinanced, but instead the loan proceeds were going to 21 replace shortfalls in co-defendant Dustin Dente's escrow
22 account. And as a result of co-defendant Dente making payments
23 to the benefits of Louis Kesten, including the mortgages and 24 expenses in connection with the properties purchased by the 25 Lesten family as straw buyers, or where Lesten or an entity

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 controlled by him sold the property to Melissa Lanzilotta-Smith
2 who was a straw buyer. As a result, documents such as the Form
3 HUD-1 was fraudulent.

4 In other words, your Honor, the money was used was
5 used to backfill Dustin Dente's escrow account.

6 I profited from this scheme, for example, by being
7 paid compensation for work as an employee of Dustin Dente's, or 8 by receiving commissions or having loan proceeds available for 9 investment opportunities. I also became aware that Dente was 10 paying for expenses in connection with the premises purchased
11 by the Lesten children in order to keep Louis Lesten from 12 exposing his fraudulent scheme.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Lockard, is there anything else you
14 wish to ask Mr. Lisi on Judge Swain's Count One?

15 MR. LOCKARD: Your Honor, I think that's sufficient.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, do you still wish to plead
17 guilty?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Zelin, do you know of any reason why
20 Mr. Lisi ought not to plead guilty?

21 MR. ZELIN: No, I do not, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Lisi, I'm satisfied that you
23 understand the nature of the charge against you and the 24 consequences of your plea, and that your plea is made
25 voluntarily and knowingly, and that there is a factual basis

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 for it. Accordingly, I will accept your plea of guilty and
2 direct a presentence report to be prepared.

3 Did you reach some agreement on sentencing? Is it
4 still separate sentencing?

5 MR. LOCKARD: Your Honor, as the plea agreement
6 reflects, we will be writing a letter to both yourself and 7 Judge Swain requesting a consolidated sentencing and for the 8 Court to resolve as they see fit.

9 THE COURT: So then maybe until Judge Swain and I work
10 that out, perhaps we ought not set a sentencing date? I assume 11 you'll get that letter soon, and I don't think this is going to 12 put it off very long because I have a feeling I know how it's 13 going to work out.

14 MR. LOCKARD: The letter will be in soon, and I think
15 we can still go ahead ordering the PSR.

16 THE COURT: Let's order the PSR and at least get that 17 started. I think we can tell them that sentencing may be 18 approximately four months from now.

19 (Pause)

20 THE COURT: Just to make sure that they start doing
21 the presentence report, let me pick a date; and if it turns out
22 to be me, then it's real, and, if not, we'll just change it.

23 How about August 21 at 3:30?

24 MR. ZELIN: Your Honor, would it be possible just to 25 go to the first week beyond Labor Day?

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 THE COURT: Simply because it's a matter of changing
2 law clerks, I prefer to keep the law clerk who's been working
3 on this.

4 MR. ZELIN: Yes, your Honor. If we may have a date in 5 late as August as possible. My oldest son is leaving for 6 college, so I'm going to be kind of knee-deep in getting him
7 situated, getting him set and getting him off.

8 THE COURT: So tell me when -- do you know what the 9 date is? I'm not trying to interfere with that.

10 MR. ZELIN: It's going to be somewhere in the area of 11 the August 20s. That is why I was hoping to go beyond Labor
12 Day, but I understand the Court wanted to keep the clerk. So
13 if we can go in late as August as possible.

14 THE COURT: Let's do this: Isaac is leaving on 15 August 23. If it turns out you are really not available that 16 week, I am generally not available the week after, so I am
17 going to put down August 15 as our place holder. Then, as I
18 say, if it turns out to be my sentence, and you learn some more 19 information, you tell me what you learn, exactly when you will
20 be otherwise engaged, and we will try to do our best to work
21 around that.

22 MR. ZELIN: Thank you, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: OK.

24 MR. LOCKARD: Still at 3:30 on the 15th, your Honor?

25 THE COURT: Yes, 3:30 on the 15th. Assuming that's

D4jQlisP

Plea

1 the real date, unless somehow we are can put it off consistent
2 with Mr. Zelin's schedule.

3 MR. ZELIN: Thank you, your Honor.

4 (Adjourned)
